Mrs. G.G. Nasmith,
Grand Hotel,
Eastbourne.

Dear Mrs. Nasmith,

I have received your letter to-day on my return to the office and am sorry to hear that your costume is not satisfactory. Please let me know whether you would like to exchange it for another one, or whether you will simply return and get a new one elsewhere. I am of opinion that the wholesale house will be reasonable in the matter.

I am pleased to hear that Colonel Nasmith is getting leave on the 1st October. He surely deserves it, and this will surely be another "Dream come true".

Yours sincerely,

R.S. Thompson

*PS
If you would prefer to get a suit elsewhere, please return the one you have, to me*
